

Assessment grid for gender-equal books¹ —Fiction book

Goal: To guide educators and parents to be able to choose books for the children that promote gender equality and that are free of gender stereotypes.

Book's ID	GRADE
Title:	/ 19
Author:
Target audience: 0 - 4 years old / 4 – 6 years old
THEMES AND VALUES	6 PTS
Is the book promoting a theme linked to equality, gender stereotypes or diversity?	Yes	No
In what way? Direct ___ Indirect ___ Humorous ___ Moralizing ___
Are female characters proactive in the story, do they propose ideas, show initiative or courage, use their strengths in a positive way?	Yes	No
Do characters express a variety of emotions, no matter their gender? (For example, an angry girl and a sad boy)	Yes	No
Is the narrative of the story of interest both for boys and girls? If not, why?:	Yes	No
Is the book connected to children's cultural and current reality?	Yes	No
Is the book connected to traditional Mi'gMaq values and teachings?	Yes	No
CHARACTERS (FROM THE TEXT AND ILLUSTRATIONS' POINT OF VIEW)	10 PTS
Is there an equal number of female and male characters? On the cover (main characters)? (For example, two characters of different genders occupying the same space)	Yes	No
Among minor characters?	Yes	No
Are characters portrayed in non-stereotypical places? (Example of a bias : female characters are in the kitchen and male characters at hockey rink.)	Yes	No
Are characters diversified in terms of appearance? (Size, physical attributes, clothes and accessories, physical abilities, social conditions and origins)	Yes	No
Are characters free of stereotypes? In their strengths and weaknesses? (For example : brave girls and fearful boys)	Yes	No
In their interests and leisure activities? (For example : girls climbing and boys dancing)	Yes	No
In the way they look? (For example: boys wearing aprons and girls wearing glasses and a lab coat)	Yes	No
If a job is involved, is it performed by someone whose gender isn't traditionally associated with it? (For example, a girl mechanic and a male nurse)	Yes	No

¹ This assessment grid for books is used by the Kaléidoscope project from Quebec City's YWCA. We thank them for sharing this resource with us. Edits are inspired from Ducret & Le Roy (2012).

If there are parents involved, are they acting in a non-traditional way for their gender? (For example, a father taking care of children or a mother driving the car)	Yes	No
Are there First Nations characters involved?	Yes	No
GENERAL QUALITY	3 PTS
Is the underlying message appropriated for the target audience?	Yes	No
Are illustrations captivating for the target audience?	Yes	No
Is the text and illustrations' layout dynamic and pleasant?	Yes	No
GLOBAL GRADE
Add the number of "Yes" and "No" and report the total of "Yes" at the top of the grid.	Total yes	Total no
Is there an element that makes you recommend the rejection or the adoption of this book? Please give an example and note which page(s) you base your recommendation on. Rejection, explain: _____ _____ _____ _____ Adoption, explain: _____ _____ _____ _____
Other comments: _____ _____ _____ _____

Assessment grid for gender-equal books—Informative book

Book's ID	GRADE
Title:	/ 11
Author:
Target audience: 0 - 4 years old / 4 – 6 years old
THEMES AND VALUES	3 PTS
Is the book promoting a theme linked to equality, gender stereotypes or diversity?	Yes	No
Is the book about women who made History, brought new ideas, showed initiative, were brave or used their strengths in a positive way?	Yes	No
Can the subject be of interest both for boys and girls? If not, why?:	Yes	No
DOCUMENTARY CONTENT	4 PTS
Is information presented in a neutral way, in order to share facts, not an opinion?	Yes	No
Is statistical or factual information recent?	Yes	No
Is information presented without sexist bias? (Example about reproduction : the sperm is presented as a brave warrior competing to fertilize a passive egg. In fact, the female reproductive system secretes a hormone that facilitates the sperm's trajectory to the egg.)	Yes	No
Is information presented without a racist or colonialist bias?	Yes	No
GENERAL QUALITY	4 PTS
Is the vocabulary used appropriated for the target audience?	Yes	No
Are the illustrations and/or pictures fascinating for the target audience?	Yes	No
Is the text and illustrations' layout dynamic and airy?	Yes	No
Are there search tools such as an index, a table of contents or a summary?	Yes	No
GLOBAL GRADE
Add the number of "Yes" and "No" and report the total of "Yes" at the top of the grid.	Total yes	Total no
Is there an element that makes you recommend the rejection or the adoption of this book? Please give an example and note which page(s) you base your recommendation on. Rejection, explain: _____ _____ Adoption, explain: _____ _____ Other comments: _____ _____ _____		